Preparing for Publication,

A MILITARY BIOGRAPHY,

BY LIEUTENANT HART, 49TH REGIMENT.

Lieut. Hart has been several years engaged in collecting and arranging matter for a Military Biography, which will contain a full and perfect detail of every officer's career, of every Rank; and any dispatch, general order, &c. with which the officer's name is associated will be given either in whole or part, as the circumstances of the case shall demand. This work will also include the services of Officers who have died or retired from the Army since the year 1830, when the nature of their services can be satisfactorily ascertained.

Lieut. Hart has already completed the services of about eight thousand officers, and he earnestly requests those of his brother officers who have not yet communicated their services to him, to do so at their earliest convenience; more especially those whose names begin with the first letters of the alphabet, as the work will be alphabetically arranged, and the first volume will shortly be published.

Early communications from Retired Officers, and the Friends of deceased Officers, will much oblige.

All communications and details of services to be addressed (post paid), to Lieut. Hart, care of Mr. MURRAY, Bookseller to the Admiralty, 50, Albemarle Street, London.

THE NEW ANNUAL ARMY LIST.

His Royal Highness has also been pleased to approve of the First Regiment of Foot Guards being made a Regiment of Grenadiers, and styled "The First, or Grenadier Regiment of Foot Guards," in commemoration of their having defeated the Grenadiers of the French Imperial Guards upon this memorable occasion.

Facings Buff.—Agent, Messrs. Cox & Co.
 [Returned from Ceylon, 4th March, 1840.]

1 Sir John Gardiner served in Lord Moira's expedition in Flanders and Holland in 1794 and 95. Actively employed in the West Indies, from 1795 to 1802. Accompanied the expedition to Walcheren in 1809. Served in the Peninsula during 1813 and 14, and commanded a brigade at the battles of the Nivelle and Orthes, for which he has received a medal and a clasp. Commanded the Infantry Brigade that took possession of Bourdeaux, and in the various operations which took place in the neighbourhood of that town, until the embarkation of the army for America.

2 Lieut. Colonel Forbes, when an ensign in the Cape regiment, was employed with a detachment upon the borders of the colony to repress the incursions of the Caffres, a service of much difficulty and danger. In 1810 he served as a volunteer with the 69th regiment at the landing and capture of the Isle of France. Went to Madras with that regiment, and continued to do duty with it until after the capture of Java; during the storm of Fort Cornelius and the very strong position surrounding it, he carried the regimental colour of the 69th, which was twice shot through in his hand whilst in the act of planting it on one of the enemy's redoubts. In 1812 joined his regiment, the 4th Ceylon, and in 1815 acted as Deputy Assistant Commissary General to one of the divisions that took possession of the Kandian country.

3 Major Simmonds served in the Peninsula from Feb. 1808 to Feb. 1813, including the affairs at Talavera and Albuera, battles of Talavera, Busaco, and Albuera, covering the siege of Badajoz in 1812, engaged every day during the retreat from Madrid and Salamanca; the retreat to Portugal, and subsequent pursuit of Massena from the lines, besides several minor affairs.

4 Major Burnside served at the capture of Martinique, and siege of Fort Desaix, March 1809; capture of Guadaloupe in 1810; and campaigns of 1813 and 14 in Canada.

¹ Sir Loftus Otway served in Ireland during the rebellion in 1798, and was present in the action at Vinegar Hill. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1808 as a Major in the 18th Hussars, and on the 13th of Dec., at Rueda, he surprised and captured the whole of the French Cavalry out-lying picket. On the 16th following, near to Valladolid, whilst en decouvert, he encountered Col. Antignac, commandant of the 22d Chasseurs à Cheval, at the head of a strong force; charged and routed him; took the Colonel prisoner, and more of his Chasseurs than he had Dragoons to guard them, and brought them all into Head-quarters, horses, men, arms, and baggage. At Benevente, whilst commanding the out-lying picket, he was opposed to Lieut.-General Le Fevre, for nearly an hour, at the head of six squadrons of the Imperial Guard; charged and broke his advanced guard, whose commanding officer was killed, and whose sword he took. In the affair of Campo Mayor he gained the rear of the enemy, and captured between five and six hundred men and their entire battering train (sixteen 24-pounders), and brought them part of the way back, but was obliged to abandon his capture, with the exception of sixteen prisoners and one tumbril, the enemy being in possession of the road by which he was to return. At Albuhera he commanded the three regiments of Portuguese Cavalry, which covered the left flank of the army.

They make advances to Regimental Paymasters on account of the Pay of the Troops, and to the Heads of the Ordnance and Naval Departments, on account of their respective services. They pay in detail the Staff, all money allowances and contingencies; also the Half-Pay and retired allowances, Chelsea Pensions, Widows' Pensions, Compassionate allowances, and Naval Pensions, &c., to all persons resident at the several stations. They contract and pay for Provisions required on the spot for the supply of the Troops, and for land and water transport. Their duties are blended with the Army, Ordnance, Navy, and many other branches of the public service. They are under the orders of and responsible for the execution of their duties to the General or Officers commanding at the various stations, and receive their instructions from the Board of Treasury, with whom they correspond through the Secretary on all points of service on which they are engaged.

On the 7th October, 1813, a General Order, of which the following is an abstract, was issued by the Commander-in-Chief:—

Whereas considerable inconvenience has arisen from the number of Medals which have been issued in commemoration of the brilliant and distinguished events in which the success of His Majesty's arms has received the Royal approbation, the Prince Regent has been pleased to command that the following Regulations shall be adopted in the grant and circulation of such marks of distinction: viz.—

1st. That one Medal only shall be borne by each Officer recommended for such distinction.

2nd. That for the second and third events, which may be subsequently commemorated in like manner, each individual recommended to bear the distinction shall carry a gold Clasp attached to the ribbon to which the Medal is suspended, and inscribed with the name of the Battle or Siege to which it relates.

3rd. That upon a claim being admitted to a fourth mark of distinction, a Cross shall be borne by each officer, with the names of the four Battles or Sieges respectively inscribed thereupon; and to be worn in substitution of the distinctions previously granted to such individuals.

4th. Upon each occasion of a similar nature that may occur subsequently to the grant of a Cross, the Clasp shall again be issued to those who have a claim to the additional distinction, to be borne on the ribbon to which the Cross is suspended, in the same manner as described in No. 2 of these Regulations.

His Royal Highness was further pleased to command that the distribution of Medals or Badges for Military services of distinguished merit shall be regulated as follows: viz.—

1st. That no General or other Officer shall be considered entitled to receive them, unless he has been personally and particularly engaged upon those occasions of great importance and peculiar brilliancy, in commemoration of which such marks of distinction are to be bestowed.

2nd. That no Officer shall be considered a candidate for the Medal, or Badge, except upon the special selection and report of the Commander of the Forces upon the spot, as having merited the distinction by conspicuous services.

3rd. That the Commander of the Forces shall transmit to the Commander-in-Chief, Returns, signed by himself, specifying the names and ranks of those Officers whom he shall have selected as particularly deserving.

4th. The Commander of the Forces in making the selection will restrict his choice to the undermentioned ranks: viz.—

General Officers.

Commanding Officers of Brigades.

Commanding Officers of Artillery, or Engineers.

Adjutant-General, and Quarter-Master-General.

Deputies of ditto, and ditto, having the rank of Field-Officers.

Assistants, Adjutant and Quarter-Master-Generals, having the rank of Field-Officers, and being at the head of the Staff, with a detached Corps, or distinct division of the Army.

Military Secretary, having the rank of Field-Officer.

Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement, in consequence of the death or removal of the original Commanding Officer.

The Crosses, Medals, and Clasps, are to be worn by the General Officers, suspended by a Ribbon of the colour of the sash, with a blue edge, round the neck; and by the Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement; the Chiefs of Military Departments, and their Deputies and Assistants (having the Rank of Field Officers); and such other Officers as may be specially recommended, attached by a Ribbon of the same description, to the button-hole of their uniform.

Those Badges which would have been conferred upon the Officers who have fallen at or died since the Battles and Sieges, shall, as a token of respect for their memories, be transmitted to their respective families.—Vide the London Gazette, 9th October, 1841.
